¶ Howe thou shalt discerne mans vryne fro womans vryne, & beastes vryne fro man and woman.

Thus I wyll that thou vnderstande that yf there be any troubled in mans vryne it sheweth in the myddes of the vryne, and in the womannes vryne it dothe nat so and there is this the froth after the castynge of mannes vrine it shall be long, and of a womans after the castynge it shalbe rounde. These two laste tokens Auycena sayeth.

¶ Howe beastes water fro mans water. Beastes water is the sadder & more suple of cõplecyon. Also the beastes water swelleth more thã the mannes. Another medle the vryne of a beaste with a mans vryne, and they shall parte asonder. And it be a Cowe that is with calfe it is good to knowe fro a woman that is with chylde, for the drestes or the contentes of the Cowes vryne is muche greater than the vryne of a woman in asmuche as the woman is lesse & fayrer of cõplecyon than ỹ cowe is

¶ If thou wylte knowe the fyrste water and the seconde, the godheed sheweth whether he be in greate eatyng & drynkyng & than the fyrste water is greater in quantite or lesse

stynkynge

stynkyng than the seconde, or els yf he lyue measurablye, than the fyrste shalbe more thycke than the other.

¶ The thyrde knowlege of vryne the whiche is called the regyons.

Thou shalte vnderstande that in the vryne whan it is in the vrynall there be thre regyons, the fyrste, the seconde, and the thyrde.

The thyrde begynneth at the botom of the vrynal & lasteth to the thickenesse of two fingers brede vpward. The seconde beginneth there as the thyrde dothe ende, and lasteth vpwarde to the cyrcle, and the fyrst fro that all vpwarde, and in euery of these regyons be dyuers contentes.

NOwe wyll I shewe the foure contentes that belong to vrynes and first I wyll begyn at frothe. Froth ẏ dwelleth and cieueth to the cyrcle, betokeneth indegestyon and winde in the stomake and in the bowels and in the heade. And yf aboue that frothe dwell greate bubbles, it betokeneth great payne in the raynes. Froth also that dwelleth great, betokeneth indegestyon and wynde. And if the frothe dwell small, it betokeneth brennynge in the stomake and brent bloude in the lyuer. If the froth be ful of graynes it betokeneth reume in the head and in the breste and in the blacke Jaunesse. And yf it be grene, it betokeneth the Jaunesse that commeth of brent blood in the lyuer, as of enuy and wrath, and bothe be in the spyce of the Jaunesse & also of the blacke Jaunesse is swellynge of the gall. And it be a swarrysshe yelow, it commeth of great heate of the bloude of the lyuer. A small skye apperynge and shadowynge the vryne aboue yf ỹ vryne be a partye blewe, it betokeneth payne at the herte and shortnes of brethe and wynde that commeth of the longes, and if the vryne be nat blewe and suche a skye shadowe the vryne aboue, it betokeneth chafynge of the lyuer, and spe-cyally yf the frothe be yelowe.

A cyrcle thycke and lytell coloure betokeneth payne in the graynes.

A cyrcle thycke and lytel and coloured as purple betokenethe payne in the forehead.

A cyrcle blacke or whyte then and lytel coloured betokenethe payne in the lyfte fyde of the heade.

A cyrcle coloured as blode betokeneth Epulence.

A cyrcle grene betokenethe wauerynge in the heade and brennyng in the stomake. And it appeare in an Arcys that is hote it betokeneth the Frenesy that commeth of colde.

A cyrcle that is coloured as a bryght blewe, yf it trymble it betokeneth deathe, and namelye an hote Arcys.

A cyrcle

A cyrcle thycke and blacke ouer all betokeneth deathe.

A cyrcle that quaketh betoke neth paine fro the necke downe to the rygebones ende.

Graynes that dwel in the cyr-cle after caſtynge of the vryne gone downe, and after ryſe vp agayne to the cyrcle they betoken rewme in the heade, and yf they go downe and tourne nat agayne to the cyrcle, than they betokeneth rewme in the breſte, in the longes and in the ſplenne. And if thou ſe two ſmal graynes in the ſeconde re-gion or mo or leſſe knitte to a ſmall ſky, that it betokeneth payne in the breſt of rewme and wicked ſtomake bad lyuer and bad longes.

How thou ſhalt know the pulſe.

When thou toucheſt the pulſe with thy foure fyngers, yf the pulſe vnder thy lytell fynger be fell and smytynge and vnder the leche fynger it be stronger and vnder the mydle fynger more stronger and so goynge vpwarde it betokeneth good, and it be the contrary it is euyll, & betokeneth death As thus. If the pulse be feble vnder the fyrste fynger, and vnder the seconde more feble, and so goynge vpwarde it betokeneth deathe. Also yf the pulse be flete vnder foure fyngers to be come to his stroke, and he fayle in the. xi. stroke it is good And it be the cōtrary, it betokeneth deathe. And if the faute come of the xi. and be feble, and in the. x. more feble, in ỹ. ix. and so goynge downe warde, that betokeneth death.

¶ Also Jerapigra and Benedicta
of theyr propertees shulde voyde fleume, and Benedicta namely in ẏ raynes voydeth fleume. ¶ Refrosyn an Jerasacra do purge properly the fleume in the heade. Also it is good for the eares and the eies, and it purgeth the hardnesse of the splen,
and it maketh clene the Marres.
¶ Benedicta ẏ is called the blessed receyte, for it is good for the Goute

 in the

in the ioyntes, in the handes, and in the fete, in the bladder & in ỹ raynes ℞ Bluca is good to pourge humours fleumatike, and for the venym, in the arme that is called Cephesia, and it is good for ache in the raynes, for the Palsye and for the Epylence.

¶ Araccardinum is called Anacardis whose propertye is to enter and voyde fleume, properlye of the heed, and moste behynde, and this lectuarye shall restore agayne the wytte, to gather memorye, and the turnyng of ỹ brayne the whiche is called Veruser of fleume. Also it profyteth agaynste the syckenesse of the Marres or sickenes that commeth of a colde cause.

☞ Stomaticum laxatiuum et Electuaria pulse purgant humores frigidos in stomaco.

☞ Pilule Arthitia properlye do pourge fleume in the raynes. And is good good for the Goute in the handes and fete as Potagre.

¶ Pilule Aure do purge fleume in the heade, and properly they sharpe the whyte of the eyes. And they be good agaynst sickenesse of the eyes.

¶ Pilule Fetyde they purge great fleume in the ioyntes. They be best for the Sitica passio, the whiche is a malady ỹ beginneth in the raynes and draweth to the herte, and it byteth a man or a woman as sore as they shulde dye. And a great whyle after it passeth away as wynde, but there shall no meate for the tyme passe throughe them. Also Pilule Fetide be good for ioyntes.

¶ Pilule de Eufordie do pourge humours of fleume fallynge fro the brayne to the synowes. And it is good for the Palsye, whiche confectyou Aupcen the doctour drewe out of the Antedoctary.

¶ Pilule Chochie they pourge hu

mours fro ẏ webbes of the brayne. And it is good for the Epylence. Pallynum is called the greate Antedoctary, it hathe great vertue. It is a good lectuarye for the longes, for the olde coughe that is departynge of ehe colde humours fro the head to the brest. And it is good for the vycesse of the breste of colde humours and purgeth the heade, the brest and the stomake of fleume and melancolye. And the quantyte that shulde be vsed therof is the weyght of two pens halfe peny at ones, and the pacyent be stronge of complecyon, than gyue to the pacyent two drãmes, that is double that weyght before sayde, and so it dureth and worketh as dyuers humours do abyde in dyuers membres more than nature wyll. Euenly dyuers medycynes shulde euenly be medled togyther. And of some medecyne more than of another, as medecynes that be

be compounded ſhulde be charped with dyuers charppynges. And the medecyne ſhulde be made of dyuers thynges, as the dyuerſyte of humours do aſke.

¶ Here folowe medecynes to purge Melancoly.

PUrgyng of medecynes Melancolyous, the fyrſt is Fera Rufini, the whiche purgeth and voydeth Melancolyes: ſo that it is good for thē that be ſcabbed of a ſalte ſcume and for an euyll called Elephetie nyghe as it were lepar. And it is good for the Mozefewe that wyll chaunge in dyuers places.

¶ Alio Diacene a lectuary wyll auoyde ỹ habundaunce of humours in the ſplenne and the herte. Alio it is good for ỹ ſplenne, or for them ỹ be troubled with fantaſyes or ſorowes. ¶ Trifera ſaracenica it is called Trifera becauſe it maketh olde men to appere ponge men. And it is called Saraſenica becauſe it was founde among the Saraſyns. It voydeth Melancolye out of the heades, the ſtomake & the liuer. and the ſynowes that go to the ſplenne. Alſo it is good for Veteryca whiche is called the great Jaunelle, whiche commeth of colour that is bzent.

☞ Jerologodyon Nymphytum, Jera Sacra Logoſa and Struere Nimphytum and Impeditū. This lectuary wyl heale a man that may nat ſpeake, for it purgeth properlye out of the heade Melācoly & fleume ſo that it is good for the Synowes called Verrige. Alſo it is good for a venym that is called Clepalyte. Alſo it is god for them that dzeame on nyghtes that they ſe dyuers ſpyrytes. ¶ Caterica imperiale, et laxatyuum.
